

REBOUND
ELECTRONICS (UK) LIMITED

Quality Policy

Rebound recognize that the future of our success depends upon the products and services we supply consistently meeting the requirements and expectations of our customers. Our model is helping purchasers safely buy electronic components in today's volatile market.

We understand that our actions and those of our suppliers affect both our customers and our organization.

All products, without exception, are photographed and are fully traceable through our quality system.

We continually ensure that our processes remain efficient and relevant allowing us to function effectively and adjust to the varied needs of our customers.
